CSU's Turner College Releases 2nd Edition of Servant Leadership Journal

The second issue of Servant Leadership: Theory and Practice is released this winter

Columbus, Georgia— February 2015 —Columbus State University's D. Abbott Turner College of Business released the second edition of its first official journal, Servant Leadership: Theory and Practice (SLTP), this winter in February of 2015. SLTP is a peer-reviewed publication published in Cabell's and aimed to advance servant leadership as a field of academic study and as a management practice. The college's journal advances servant leadership by publishing quality empirical and theoretical work in the field as well as practitioner-centered work concerning the practical application of servant leadership principles.

Readers are provided with free online access to SLTP issues through the journal's official website, <http://www.sltpjournal.org>. The co-editors of Servant Leadership: Theory and Practice are Dr. Phillip Bryant and Dr. Steven Brown, professors at the Turner College of Business at Columbus State University, and the editorial assistant is Renee Lambert.
