CSU's Turner College Releases Servant Leadership Journal

The first issue of Servant Leadership: Theory and Practice is released this summer

Columbus, Georgia— September 2014—Columbus State University's D. Abbott Turner College of Business released its first official journal, Servant Leadership: Theory and Practice (SLTP), this summer in August of 2014. SLTP is a peer-reviewed publication listed within Cabell's journal directory. Its mission is to advance servant leadership as a field of academic study and as a management practice. The college's new journal advances servant leadership by publishing quality empirical and theoretical work in the field as well as practitioner-centered work concerning the practical application of servant leadership principles.

Open access to SLTP is available through the journal's official website, <http://www.sltpjournal.org>. The co-editors of Servant Leadership: Theory and Practice are Dr. Phillip Bryant and Dr. Steven Brown, professors in the Turner College of Business at Columbus State University. Acknowledgements are made to Dean Linda Hadley, Dr. Neal Thomson, and Renee Lambert within the premiere issue for their contributions to creation of the journal.
